

Aiken Challenge Series IV Highlights - February 16-19, 2017 - Carolina Classic

Two weeks of great weather made for an awesome finale to week 4 of the Aiken Challenge Series. Hard to believe we had temperatures in the 70's for the second weekend in a row. The USHJA Green Incentive Hunter Classic was won by Sheila Wilcox's, Absolute Harmony ridden by Penny Kinnally over Southland Farm's, En Tune and Christina Jason and Debra Taylor's, Really ridden by Susan Sicso. Both the $5,000 Open Jumper Welcome and $10,000 Mini-prix went to Southland Farm's Vancouver IV ridden by Christina Jason followed by Rodney Harkey's, Equador and Gonzalo Garcia on Eleanor Ward's, Ziddan in the welcome with two of Doug Payne's mounts, Marshal M Dillon and Nancy Wetmore's Euro's Chin Up in the prix. Isabelle Song was on fire in the 3'6" medals winning the Pessoa/US Hunter Seat Medal, the ASPCA Maclay, the WIHS Hunter Phase AND the Mary Ann Parmelee Memorial Equitation Classic. The $2,500 USHJA National Derby was won by Internet II and Celia Cram over Christina Jason and End Game and Margo and Meagan Bennett. Our second Pony Hunter Derby of the season was won by Orion's Diamond Ace and Jessica West.

Absolute Harmony

Internet II

Vancouver IV

Photo credit: Barry Koster

For full results, go to: Horseshowsonline.com. Aiken Challenge circuit standings will be available at the end of each week: http://www.psjshows.com/acscircuitpoints_2017.pdf (circuit awards presented at March Madness II) Showing continues this weekend and the following two weeks at Highfields. PSJ ~ February 25-26 and USEF March Madness 2-12, 2017.